

A Shake of Pepper

Widey and Danika Giraffe are my two giraffes. Today they decided to explore Dinosaur Land. In Dinosaur Land they found out the king dinosaur doesn't like giraffes. My giraffes friends are scared and begin running and running. Then standing before them is the smiling king dinosaur. They are so FRIGHTENED!

The king dinosaur starts to trudge towards them. Widey and Danika Giraffe get ran over and are trapped by the king. They cried for me, their owner, because they are bleeding. All the dinosaurs in the land, except one, are laughing and happy. I'm frightened because the king won't get off my two special giraffes that I sleep with every night. All of a sudden the dinosaur queen comes and demands the king to get off the giraffes. He says NO!!!

After a long time of the queen trying to convince the king to get off the giraffes, he still refuses to get off. Meanwhile, I'm so sad as my two fragile giraffes are trapped. Finally the queen went home and got some black pepper. Then she sprinkles the pepper on the king's nose. The king sneezed and sneezed. He jumps so far into the sky past the clouds. Meanwhile Widey and Danika giraffe run for their lives towards me. I'm so happy for their great escape from the mean king.

Two years later when the king finally arrived back to Dinosaur land, he's angry because the giraffes got away and cries. My giraffe NEVER want to visit Dinosaur Land again. In the end everything is back to normal with my giraffes, sleeping peacefully with me, but the king still wants to capture giraffes.
